

- 15 -

SOPWITH SNIPE — The Sopwith Snipe was only in action for the last three months of the Second World War but many regarded it as the finest of all fighters in the war. Easier to handle than the "Camel", it was designed for high altitude fighting. Major W.G. Barker won his VC in a Snipe by fighting off about 60 enemy aircraft. (CANADIAN FORCES PHOTO)

- 30 -

Information Services

Department of National Defence

PL 144506

Ottawa. Tel:-992-7469

June 7, 1967

ARMED FORCES DAY

SATURDAY JUNE 10, 1967